House Therapy

Stretch your budget with free energy-saving home improvements*

Making your home more efficient can help cut costs on your monthly energy bills.

Our House Therapy program offers free professional services including:

- Home energy audit.
- Weatherization and insulation to stop drafts and energy loss.
- Replacement of inefficient appliances for qualified customers.

Note: Renters may qualify for services when landlord agrees to allow property changes.

We offer this program through a partnership with your local Community Action Agency. Your local agency will:

- Determine your eligibility.
- Coordinate your energy audit.
- Hire local contractors to make recommended improvements.

See chart on reverse to find the Community Action Agency nearest you.

House Therapy is income based.
Below are the program income guidelines for 2020.

Household size	Annual income	Three-month income
1	$27,047	$6,761
2	$35,370	$8,842
3	$43,692	$10,923
4	$52,014	$13,003
5	$60,336	$15,084
6	$68,658	$17,164
For families of seven or more, check with your local Community Action Agency.

*A Department of Energy study found that households that participated in weatherization improvements saved an average of $283 per year.
